

AIKALISÄ KULTTUURI

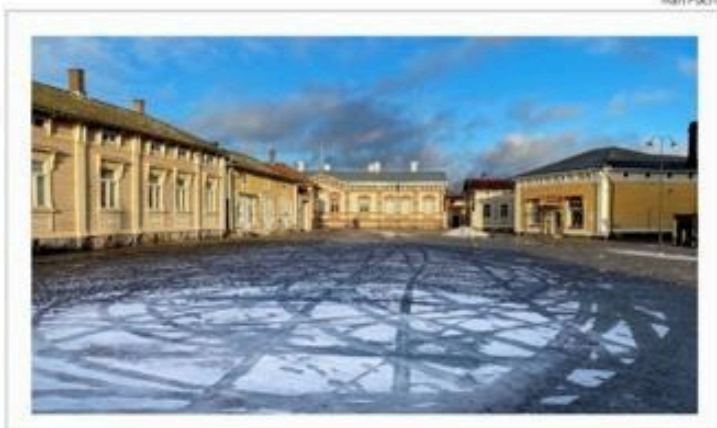

Window exhibition 'Thousand words for snow' 23.2.-23.3. at Kuninkaankatu 24. Opening is held on the street Thursday 23.2. 17:30-18:00

Australian nature photographer Ran Fuchs, who does his work at Raumaras-residence, has captured the Finnish winter in his photographs. His photos and the photos of local nature photographers Raimo Sundelin, Teemu Laulajainen and Altti A. Salo are on display on the window of a commercial premise located in Kuninkaankatu in Old Rauma.

"People do not want to protect what they cannot see." – Ran Fuchs

"All my photos are about nature. The photos remind of the beauty of nature, that unfortunately is too often ignored by us." – Ran Fuchs

Fuchs' residence also got its share of the milder winter period.

Winter landscape from the west coast.